On 08/19/2015 Ozarks Drug Enforcement Team arrested Jason Olsson a 33 year old from California. Olsson was arrested after a traffic stop on 171 HWY in Joplin. A Joplin Police K-9 located 186 Grams of suspect methamphetamine in Olsson's vehicle. Olsson was a target of the Ozarks Drug Enforcement Team and was part of an ongoing investigation. Olsson's girlfriend Jasmine Bereki, a 26 year old was located by ODET Detectives at a Joplin Motel where she was arrested on weapon charges.

After further investigation it was determined that both suspects had a storage shed. After obtaining a Search Warrant for the unit, ODET detectives located another 1002 grams of suspected meth and two more firearms. This puts the total meth seized at 2.6 lbs and 3 guns recovered. The street value of the meth is around $118,800. Both suspects were charged in Jasper County with Drug Trafficking and Felon in Possession of Firearms. Their bonds were set at $250,000 cash only.
